DESIGN TEAM

FOR SALES & MARKETING DEPARTMENTS

As a marketer, you've got a lot to manage. Analytics. Copywriting. Strategy. And on top of it all, you've got to manage designers to produce your deliverables.

We can help.

Lightboard is an on-demand design team for marketing professionals. For everything from PowerPoint presentations to landing pages and social media, our design team will deliver quality results quickly and efficiently.

You never need to worry about finding a designer or managing a project again. Our account managers learn about you and your company, and make sure every project we deliver is on-time and on-brand—and they're just a phone call or email away whenever you have a question.

Through our browser-based collaboration software, all of your projects are at your fingertips. Invite your co-workers to create and review projects, and rest easy knowing we'll deliver great design with clear budgets and reliable schedules.

Join the hundreds of companies—like 3M, Autodesk, Flexport, ShareThis, and Trello—that are switching to Lightboard.
